GREAT ROBBERY STUMPS SLEUTHS

No Light on South Bend's $18,000 Postoffice Clean-Up.

SECRET SERVICE MEN MYSTIFIED

Job One of Most Artistic and Bold in Annals of Postoffice Looting.

South Bend, Ind., Nov. 16.—The South Bend postoffice was robbed of $18,653.50 in stamps Satpurday night and the robbery continues quite as much of a mystery today as yesterday. That the robbers did the job some time during Saturday night is apparent, but at what hour or hours is unknown. The burglars made such a successful get-away that the officers yesterday were without a clew and the inspectors who arrived last night have been unable to get any nearer a solution.

The plunder was all in stamps, as follows:

Five Hundred and fifty thousand one cent stamps, value $5,500; 600,000 two cent stamps, value $12,000.

Five Hundred twenty-five cent books of one cent stamps, value $125.

One thousand twenty-five cent books of two cent stamps, value $250.

Five hundred forty-nine cent books, value $245.

Five hundred ninety-seven cent books, value $533.50.

Drill Vault With Electricity.

The robbery was discovered at 8:30 o'clock Sunday morning by a clerk in the employ of the Household Outfitting company one door north of the room temporarily occupied for postoffice purposes during the erection of the new $100,000 building.

The clerk having the occasion to enter the store found it impossible to open either entrance to which he had keys, and, suspecting that something was wrong, called Patrolman Parker. Throwing their weight against the doors they forced an entrance and an examination showed that the doors had been fastened by large screw hooks.

A hole 14 by 14 inches had been electrically drilled through the 14-inch fireproof wall forming one side of the postoffice vault, through which one of the thieves had entered the vault and passed the plunder to his confederates.

Employes Only 100 Feet Away.

That the robbery was committed by experts is shown by the precautions taken to prevent discovery, and by the fact that the robbers worked so skillfully that the night force of the mailing clerks within 100 feet of the vault had no knowledge of what was taking place.

Access to the Household Outfitting company storeroom was gained by ascending a stairway fifty feet south of the store to the third floor of the building. From the head of the stairway the robbers crossed over to the building north of the postoffice and descended to the first floor next to the postoffice.

Before beginning operations on the wall the thieves covered the floor and stairway with scores of blankets and quilts taken from the stock of the store, and also hung a thick quilt on the north wall of the vault under which the drilling was done. As the bricks were loosened they were pulled out of the drillers' way by means of a small tackle and pulley, which was left behind.

Footprints in the dust of the stairway showed that an outlook was stationed in a position which would give the big windows in the front of the him a full view of the big windows in the front of the store.

As the booty would fill eight suitcases the authorities state that a least four men were employed in the robbery. The round-about methods taken to get within reach of the vault shows that the plan of the buildings had been carefully studied, probably for weeks.

At no time during the night was the postoffice unguarded. Frank Rexstrew and Frank Zipperer, mailing clerks, were in the mailing and sorting room until relieved by the day force. Patrolman Cutting, a messenger, and mail wagon drivers also were in and out of the postoffice at all hours of the night.

The electric drill used by the thieves was worked by power taken from lighting wires less than 20 feet from the wall, the wires being detached from a desk lamp in the office of the household company.

Power from Desk Lamp Wires.

The drills, picks, and other tools, all new, and a bottle of nitroglycerin, which was probably to be used in case the robbers found a steel lining to the vault, were all left behind and are in the hands of the police.

Inspector A. B. Holmes, at Cincinnati, O., was notified and he ordered Inspector A. R. Burr, of Fort Wayne, to South Bend, the latter arriving last evening.

Clinton R. Willson, of the Commercial bank, has returned from a visit to his brother, at Grand Forks, N. D.

HENEY'S CHANCES TO LIVE IMPROVE

Victim of Former Prison Bird's Pistol Making Good Progress.

IS SORRY HAAS ENDED HIS LIFE

Wanted to Learn Inside of Ex-Convict's Attempt on His Life.

San Francisco, Nov. 16.—Although nearly three days have elapsed since Francis J. Heney was shot down in the court room by Morris Haas, who committed suicide in his cell at the county jail Saturday night, the seven physicians in attendance upon Mr. Heney agreed today that the long and anxious interval had developed not a single unfavorable symptom resultant from the bullet wound in his head. There is neither fever nor indication of blood poisoning; the patient has shown no unexpected loss of strength and between periods of long and refreshing sleep last night, he asked for and was given a small portion of liquid nourishment.

It is even said that Mr. Heney's vocal powers will be unimpaired by the course of the bullet before lodging in the muscles of his throat and this, in view of the demands upon his voice by the prosecution in which he is engaged, will be welcome news to the assistant district attorney when it has been more definitely ascertained.

Bullet is Removed.

The bullet fired by Morris Haas at Mr. Heney was removed from the muscles of the lower left maxillary, where it was located by means of the X-Ray this morning. The operation was successfumlly performed by Dr. Wallace I. Terry, chief surgeon of the Central Emergency hospital. Mr. Heney went through the ordeal well and is reported as resting quietly, showing no ill effects from the operation.

When Abraham Ruef is brought from the county jail to the court room where Heney was shot last Friday, three well known attorneys in San Francisco will answer "ready" on behalf of the prosecution in the trial of the former political boss on a charge of bribing a supervisor in the award of the United Railways overhead trolley franchise. While the resumption of the trial will be a test of the community's temper and while the building and its immediate vicinity will undoubtedly be thronged, there is no expectation of any serious demonstration.

Haas' Pistol a Mystery.

There has been no satisfactory explanation of the manner in which Morris Haas procured possession of the Derringer with which he shot himself in the county jail.

Chief of Police Biggy and some of his immediate subordinates are content with the declaration that the prisoner carried the weapon into his cell concealed in his shoe. Other members of the department insist that this was impossible and that the pistol was handed to him, either by his wife upon the occasion of her visit, or by some other person.

Mrs. M. Kohn, who had known Haas intimately for twenty-five years, informed the police that Haas acquainted her with his determination to shoot Heney some time ago and she threatened to have him arrested. She identified the derringer as one of three pistols she had known Haas to possess.

MASONS WILL HEAR GOVERNOR ELECT MARSHALL

He Will Deliver First Public Address Since Election Wednesday Night.

Governor-Elect Thomas R. Marshall, himself a thirty-third degree Mason, will deliver his first public address since he was elected to be Indiana's next governor at the banquet on Wednesday evening when the fall convocation of the bodies of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite will be eluded. Mr. Marshall readily accepted the invitation extended him by the officers of the local organization. Although he has been asked to talk at Richmond, Louisville and several other places since the 3rd of this month, he has had to decline and the Fort Wayne lodge feels peculiarly proud that it should be so honored.

The convocation begins tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock and it is hoped that by that time all the visitors will have arrived. As already noted, the class to be taken in tomorrow and Wednesday consists of fifty-eight applicants, the largest number ever taken in in the history of the Fort Wayne Lodge of Perfection.

STATE SCORES IN LAMPHERE TRIAL

Important Facts in Identification of Mrs. Gunness Established.

MORE PROOF AS TO HER RINGS

Dr. Schell May Return to Testify to Lamphere's Confession to Him.

Laporte, Ind., Nov. 16.—For the purpose of leading up to the motive for the setting fire of the house of Mrs. Belle Gunness by Ray Lamphere, who is on trial here charged with her murder, the state today offered in evidence a number of letters written by Mrs. Gunness to A. K. Helgelein, regarding the disappearance of his brother, and also placed before the jury certain documents and papers by which the signature of Mrs. Gunness will be identified. In systematic order this evidence is being brought before the jury and the climax of this phase of the case will be the reading of the letters.

State Makes Good Point.

In the cross-examination of Mrs. William Flynn, the defense accidentally brought out a strong point in favor of the state when the witness testified that the rings which she saw on the fingers of Mrs. Gunness in life were so tight and Mrs. Gunness fingers were so fat that they could not have been removed without filing them off. These are the rings which were found on the fingers of the dead woman after the fire and which were identified by Mrs. Flynn.

Three Helgelein letters were offered in evidence through Mrs. Way Turner, who had translated them from Norwegian into English, but they were not read at this time.

Attorney M. E. Leliter, who was Mrs. Gunness' legal adviser, testified that formerly Mrs. Gunness signed her name "Belle P. S. Gunness" but that some time before the fire she changed it to just "Bella Gunness." In the proceedings in this case the name used by the officials has been "Belle Gunness."

This evidence was presented to the jury for the purpose of showing that the initials "P. S." found on the rings were part of her name. Mr. Lellter told of trouble between Lamphere and Mrs. Gunness over the wages of the former. He also identified the signatures of the woman to the Helgelein letters.

D. H. McGill, a real estate man, testified that the Gunness house was worth from $3,000 to $4,000. Clyde H. Martin, a civil engineer, testified that the most direct route from the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Smith, where Lamphere spent the night of the fire, to the Warrick place, where he worked and where he was arrested, was by the McClung road, past the Gunness house.

LODGE NO CHARGES BUT ASK AUDIT OF BOOKS

Attorney Campbell Talks of Effort of Citizens at Garrett.

Attorney W. A. Campbell, of this city, who is representing the committee of Garrett citizens in the demand for an audit of the books of the municipality, said today that citizens were making no charges against the administration, but they believed the interests of good government would be subserved by an expert examination of the books.

They are particularly anxious, said Attorney Campbell, to get information that will enable them to know whether the water and light department of the city government is a paying investment or whether it is simply sinking the city deeper in debt. As the result of a wrangle the committee has been refused access to the city books, and a few days ago the committee went into court in the effort to secure a mandamus to compel the city officials to allow Will A. Rundell, a Fort Wayne expert accountant, to make an examination. Judge Bratton has not yet ruled in the matter.

It is said that a petition for the examination, bearing the signature of 250 Garrett citizens, was secured, but it was never presented to the city council. Attorney Campbell believes the citizens' committee will eventually be permitted to proceed with its examination.

CONRAD TAKEN HOME.

His Troubles Said To Be Financial But There is Something More.

After having been confined at the Hope hospital where he was removed Friday morning in a critical condition from the Commercial hotel where he attempted suicide by inhaling gas, F. D. Conrad, the young farmer residing near Leo was taken to his home Sunday recovered beyond all danger. He was able to walk to the carriage that was to convey him to his home which he had left Thursday afternoon and which had his intentions prevailed he would never have seen again.

Nothing very definite was gotten out of him why he should have attempted such a deed, he admitting that suicide was his intention. It is known that he is in deep financial trouble but the family is very reticent in speaking of his affairs. That there is something else that prompted his act is the belief of several who have been associated with him but whether or not this will ever become public is a question.

Contractor Charles Weimar has begun the erection of a frame store building for Fred Allgeier, at Leith and Lafayette streets. Mr. Allgier will start a grocery and meat market in the building.

EVIDENCE POINTS TO FOUL MURDER

Widow of "Chick" Stahl is Found Dead in Streets of Boston.

HAD BEEN ROBBED OF HER JEWELRY

Was Wearing $3,000 Worth of Gems—Police Look for a Man.

Boston, Mass., Nov. 16.—The body of a well dressed woman found in a doorway in this city last night was positively identified early today as that of Mrs. Julia Harmon Stahl, 32 years old, the widow of "Chick" Stahl, the Boston American league base-ball player and captain, who committed suicide at West Baden, Ind., on March 28, 1907.

MRS. JULIA HARMON STAHL.

The identification of Mrs. Stahl was made by her father, Mr. Harmon.

It was said that Mrs. Stahl left her home last evening wearing jewelry valued at $2,000, all of which with the exception of a gold mounted comb and a wedding ring, was missing from the body when found.

Was Seen With Man.

In seeking to account for the loss of Mrs. Stahl's jewelry and her presence in the rather poor neighborhood in which her body was found, the police sought a man who was seen to cross Andrew Square, South Boston, with Mrs. Stahl just before she entered the hall in which she died. This man is believed to have helped her into the doorway but was not seen to leave the house.

Up to the time that relatives of Mrs. Stahl noticed the absence of the jewelry early today, the police have believed the case to be one of heart disease, but with the advent of robbery as a possible motive the case appeared to be one of murder.

Marks were found on the woman's throat, but it is not thought these had to do with her death.

DEMOCRATS FIND WAY TO OFFICES

Procedure in Contests for State Places is Discovered.

HAVE THE EDGE ON REPUBLICANS

House and Senate May Have Fierce Rivalry in Unseating Members.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 16.—While the defeated democratic candidates for state offices are making preparations for the contest which they will make in the legislature to get possession of these offices they are also looking into the procedure to be followed. And they say they have found a way out of their trouble.

The law governing contests for state offices provides that a contestant shall notify the house of representatives of his contest by filing with it his showing that he is entitled to the office. Then the house and senate each appoints a committee of seven members to hear the evidence and decide the contest.

After hearing all the evidence in the case, this joint committee decides the contest and its decision is final, according to the statute.

Democrats Find a Way.

But the question arose as to what would happen in case the senate committee was composed of republicans and the house committee of democrats and each side should make a report of its own. This would mean two conflicting reports, one to the senate and the other to the house. Each house would probably adopt the report of its own committee and in such case the democrats, it has been argued, would not be able to get anywhere with their contest.

But the democrats say they have found a means of avoiding such a situation as this. They have consulted attorneys who say the joint committee will have to report to a joint session of the house and the senate. While the statute does not make a specific provision for such a joint session, the lawyers say it is the only way in which a report could be made by the committee.

Promises Some Unseating.

The fact that a United States senator is to be chosen at the next session of the legislature will lead to a number of contests for election in both houses, it is believed. Already several contests for election have been filed in different parts of the state by defeated democratic candidates for the house.

In the senate the republicans will have the majority and therefore will have the advantage in seating members of that body. One of the possibilities that has been considered by the democrats is that the republicans, taking advantage of their majority, will temporarily seat enough members in the senate to cut a big figure in electing a United States senator. Color is given to this theory by the fact that the election of the three democratic candidates for state senator in Marion county has been contested.

The democratic state organization, it is understood, is getting ready to look after its interests in the house, where the democrats are in the majority and where, of course, the advantages the democrats would have in seating their members in that branch would equal those of the republicans in the upper branch. Several contests which look to the seating of democrats in the house have been filed in different counties of the state.

PLAN MUST BE DEVISED.

New York Man Talks to Bank Clerks of Deposit Guaranty.

The guarantee of bank deposits is an issue that must be met and solved within the near future in the opinion of E. A. Allen, of New York, who delivered an interesting address before the Fort Wayne chapter of the American Banking institute at the Commercial club rooms Saturday evening.

Edward M. Detzer presided at the meeting and Mr. Allen, who came to Fort Wayne from Indianapolis, where he had attended the state convention of Indiana bankers, covered a wide range of banking business in his address. He urged the bank employes to think deeply toward the solution of problems of finance.

Samuel M. Foster, president of the German-American National bank, was also present and spoke briefly. The attendance was very large, embracing nearly all the bank clerks in the city.

DR. HURTY'S LECTURE.

Dr. J. N. Hurty, of Indianapolis, secretary of the state board of health, will deliver an address Tuesday evening in the assembly room of the court house on the subject, "Length and Breadth of Life and Their Relationship to Morbidity."

The lecture is under the auspices of the Fort Wayne Medical society and the general public is invited.

PUT IN DAY TO GET STOUT JURY

Second of Woodburn Murder Trials Begins in the Circuit Court.

RAPID PROGRESS IN EXAMINATION

Good Prospect for Getting to the Examination of Witnesses Tuesday.

This afternoon the attorneys engaged inthe trial of John Stout for the murder of Marshal Columbus Croy, at Woodburn, on June 7, of last year, thought it likely that before the hour of adjournment in the evening a jury will have been selected to try the case as the work of picking a panel had progressed smoothly all day.

At any rate it was believed that the taking of testimony will begin some time tomorrow as the men on the regular panel and on the special venire of 100 present, as a rule, substantial citizens and the challenges during the day were made because of personal matters rather than upon the fitness of the men who were disposed of.

Stout was in court early this morning and spent most of the day looking straight in front of him and did not seem particularly interested in the selection of men who will have his life in their hands. He does not show the effects of his long confinement in jail, as his color is good and his general appearance indicates that he has not suffered physically by reason of being deprived of his freedom.

New Law Was Sprung.

During the forenoon Judge Erwin, engaged in the defense, pointed out a law under which men who are sixty years of age or more have the privilege of refusing to act as jurors. Two men got themselves off the panel by this means and then it was found out that the law did not apply except in cases of grand jurors.

Particular attention was paid by the attorneys for the defense to the age and general health of the veniremen, as they all remembered the delay in the Miller case and they want to avoid a similar mishap in this instance.

Deputy Sheriff Ward Hall and Bailiff Plumadore kept the viremen coraled in the curio room at th ecourt house all day with the exception that two were kept seated right at the court room door and as the men were excused from the box the officers always had one right on hand to take his place. This arrangement on the part of the court officers greatly facilitated the work of examination.

Veniremen Excused.

Before court opened in the morning Anthony Kelker and Peter Smyser were excused by the court as they were able to show good cause for not serving. During the forencon the defense exhausted five of its twenty peremptory challenges and up to this afternoon the defense has exercised this right in only one instance when Amos R. Walters was excused.

The names of the men in the box at 3 o'clock this afternoon were: Nicholas Huffman, Henry Hutker, Horace McDuffy, Irad D. Greek, George Brown, Homer Brown, Frank P. Sordelet, Louis Burger, Henry W. Martin, Fred Schoppmann, Orin Lake and William Gieseking.

Those called an dexcused during the day were Charles Kramer and J. Wilson Hulinger, who got of because they were over sixty, Frank Smith, Henry Deaner, Clayton Darling, Henry Roegge, Albert Hurley, Theodore E. Ashley, William Oesterhouse, J. M. Culver, William E. Hand, John R. Hartzell, W. M. Harper, Oliver Kumpfer, Frank Fortmeyer, Clem Reakers, Charles D. Cochenour, Jefferson Runnells, William Hosler, Mat Chrickmore, Amos R. Walters.

WILL MAKE NEW TENDER.

City Officials Prepared to Make Final Offer to Company.

Members of the board of public works will probably make a final tender to the McBride Construction Co. this evening in an effort to settle the differences arising out of the construction of the municipal lighting plant. If it is not accepted, a lawsuit will follow. This the city is trying to avoid.

The contract price was $56,002 and the company had extras that it wanted $12,000 for. This was reduced to $16,0000, but the city holds that there ought to be a deduction from the contract price to $41,200 instead of a long list of extras.

Brother of Victim Testifies.

Asle K. Helgelein, of Aberdeen, S. D., brother of Andrew K. Helgelein, was called to the stand and told of his brother's departure from home for Laporte, early in January, when he failed to return after an absence of more than two months an investigation was started, which resulted in the finding of a number of letters written by Mrs. Gunness to Andrew Helgelein. A total of 56 letters was found; all written in Norwegian by Mrs. Gunness to Andrew Helgelein. He then wrote Mrs. Gunness and received her reply, which was offered in evidence but not read. In these letters Mrs. Gunness tells of trouble with Lamphere and of his jealousy and also informs Asle Helgelein that his brother has gone to Norway. She even copied, in one letter, part of a letter alleged to have been written her by Andrew Helgelein from Norway.

Dr. Schell May Testify.

It was reported today that Dr. E. A. Schell, president of Iowa Wesleyan university at Mount Pleasant, Iowa, but pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church of this city at the time of Ray Lamphere's arrest on the charge of murdering Mrs. Belle Gunness, will come to Laporte this week to confront the defendant and repeat on the witness stand the incriminating stories which Lamphere is said to have told him during the first few days of the prisoner's incarceration That Lamphere told much of a damaging nature to Dr. Schell when the latter visited him in his cell before an attorney had a chance to close the prisoner's mouth, is known. Just how much he admitted, only Dr. Schell, Prosecutor Smith and Lamphere himselw know.

LEIKAUF ASKS WRIT UNDER A SECOND ACTION

Original Suit Against the City Dismissed—Court News.

In the circuit court today the original suit filed by the Leikauf Packing company against the city asking a writ of mandamus to compel the health department to issue a license to conduct a slaughter house was dismissed and another substituted.

The allegations in the second application for a writ are practically the same as those contained in the first, showing that a written request for a license was filed on October 5 and that it was refused. Judge S. M. Hench and Judge Chapin, who represent the company lost a legal point in the case on Friday and while they contended they were right the case was one that could not be held up to get a higher court decision on.

They contended that they had a right to introduce testimony showing that the packing house was in a sanitary condition in rebuttal of the city's testimony to the effect that it was not when the application was filed. Judge O'Rourke denied this right saying testimony of this kind should have been part of the original case and as this effectually barred the evidence of a number of witnesses it was decided to begin the suit over again. The hearing is set for November 30.

City Attorney Guy Colerick won a victory in the only big legal skirmish in the suit and will endeavor to dispose of the case as soon as possible so that the position of the city health department can be clearly defined.

Gave Up the Children.

When Catherine Bair applied in the superior court today for an order giving her the custody of three children by a former husband, John Pooley, their father, was present and readily consented that the mother should have them. They have been in the charge of their grandparents and the father has paid nothing on the order requiring him to support them. The mother stated she had married a man with a good farm and that she is able to care for the little ones.

Real Estate to Son.

Under the will of Elizabeth K. Brockmeyer, probated in the circuit court today, all of the real estate is bequeathed to George Brockmeyer, a son. He is required under the will to pay about $2,000 to his brothers and sisters.

CASE IS APPEALED.

The case in the city court in which Frank Leikauf was convicted of selling meat without a license and fined $25 and costs, was appealed today to the circuit court.

DEATH COMES SOON AFTER GOLDEN WEDDING

Mrs. John N. Kress Passes Away—Other Deaths and Funerals.

Mrs. Margaret Kress, wife of John N. Kress, died at 9:50 o'clock Sunday morning at the family home, 2525 Broadway, at the age of 69 years. Mr. and Mrs. Kress celebrated their golden wedding anniversary in April last.

Mrs. Kress was born in Trumbull county, O., in March 1839, and the greater part of their married life was spent on a farm in Lafayette township, the wife remaining there during her husband's service of more than three years in the army during the civil war. Mr. and Mrs. Kress removed to Fort Wayne about fifteen years ago.

MRS. JOHN N. KRESS.

Surviving are the husband and six children. Mrs. Kress was widely known and universally esteemed. She was a prominent member of the Women's Relief corps. Funeral services will be held from the Wayne Street M. E. church Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, under the auspices of the Women's Relief corps.

PETERS.

Frederick Rudolph Peters, 59 years of age, died at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon at his home, 813 West Superior street, following a stroke of apoplexy sustained but a few hours before.

Mr. Peters was born in Westphalia, Germany, and came to America in 1875. He is survived by the widow and three children—Edward, Louis and Anna Peters. Four children preceded the father in death. The deceased was a devout member of St. John's Reformed church.

Funeral services Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock from the residence and at 2 o'clock from St. John's Reformed church.

SCHAPER.

Gotlieb Schaper, a pioneer farmer who came to Allen county sixty years ago, died Sunday afternoon at his home, five miles east of Fort Wayne, in Adams township, at the advanced age of 82 years. Death was due to a complication of diseases following an attack of paralysis, which he sustained last summer.

Mr. Schaper was born in Germany, but came to America in 1848, settling in Fort Wayne, and removing a few years later to Adams township, where the remainder of his life was spent. Surviving relatives include two children, Henry Schaper and Mrs. William Hartman, and two stepchildren—Edmund Schroeder and Mrs. Sophia Rodenbeck. There are 22 grandchildren and five great-grandchilren. The wife and two sons had preceded him in death.

GREAT MISSIONARY CONGRESS OPENS IN CHICAGO

First Roman Catholic Convention of the Sort is Inaugurated.

Chicago, Nov. 16.—In the presence of archbishops, bishops, mitred abbots, priests and a multitude of laymen, the first session of the first Roman Catholic Missionary congress in this country opened today in the Frist Regiment armory in this city. To the communicants who thronged the assembly room the occasion had an added significance from the fact that it marks the passing of the Roman Catholic church in America from the position of a mission field to equality with the nations organized as hierarchical unities in the Roman Catholic church.

The morning session, presided over by Archbishop Quigley, of Chicago, was devoted to foreign missions and was preceded by an opening chorus by the students of the Cathedral college.

Event Marks a Change.

In his address of welcome to the visiting delegates Archbishop Quigley declared that the event marks the change in the church in America from missionary conditions to a full share in the activities of the church and should crystallize the missionary spirit in the clergy and people.

In his address of welcome special emphasis was laid by the archbishop on the presence of Most Rev. Diomede Falconi, archbishop of Liassi, and special legate of Pope Pius X.

Archbishop Falconi at the conclusion of the address of welcome, delivered an address in which he pronounced the blessing of Pope Pius X on all taking part in the congress, and predicted a glorious growth for the church under the new conditions.

OLD DOWAGER GAVE RECOMMEND TO SUCCESSOR

Urged Attention on the New Dowager Empress as Boss of China.

Pekin, Nov. 16.—Following the publication yesterday of the late Emperor Kuang Hza's valedictory, recommending the reference of important affairs to the Empress Dowager, now dead, another edict was issue dat 1 o'clock this morning giving the late dowager's valedictory commending the new dowager, Yehonala, to the confidence of the young emperor's regents.

The emperor's installation on the throne and the naming of the era will take place, it is expected, on the Chinese New Year, January 21.

At three o'clock this afternoon a conference of diplomats was held to discuss proper steps for the recognition of the new government.

POPE PIUS' JUBILEE.

Rome, Nov. 16.—A pontifical mass was celebrated this morning by the pope on the occasion of the fiftieth anniversary of his joining the priesthood. It was the most imposing ceremony witnessed in Rome since the coronation of the pontiff. There were present not less than seventy thousand of the faithful, who had come to Rome from all parts of the world.

Tribunes had been erected only for the pope's sisters, the members of royal families, the diplomatic corps and the special missions sent by the heads of states. The rest of the people were admitted by tickets.

The papal procession was most magnificent and brought together a large variety of handsome and rich court costumes. The bishops were clad in purple and the cardinals in red.

John Theisen entertained friends at a stag party Sunday afternoon at his home, 1401 Cass street. Music and cards were enjoyed, the guests including John Frase, C. L. Littlefield, T. Parker, T. Welsh, B. B. Shaw, E. A. Kynaston, J. H. Gusching, jr., R. Larimore, William Young and W. Merritt.

FIRE AT STATE REFORMATORY.

NEW FIRE TRUCK HERE.

Will Be Unloaded From Wabash Yards Tomorrow Morning.

The new eighty-five foot fire truck ordered from the Seagrave company at Columbus, O., soon after the Aveline fire has arrived in the city and will be unloaded at the Wabash yards tomorrow morning. Chief Hilbrecht states that he can not say in what time the new piece of apparatus will be put in service but hopes that it will not be long.

The new truck is a splendid specimen of modern up-to-date fire fighting apparatus. Instead of requiring seven or eight men to lift the aerial ladder, that work can be accomplished on the new truck by two men and a set of heavy springs. It will be stationed at the No. 3 engine house along with the new engine, both of which will require three horses.

The city has also ordered a new sixty-five foot ladder truck to take the place of the old one at the central engine house and while nothing definite has been heard concerning it, it is expected in a short time. When this arrives, the old truck will be sent to the Seagrave company for overhauling and remodeling.

A PROCLAMATION

Whereas, the people of our city have been led to purchase so-called remedies from which they have received no benefit whatever, and having thus wasted so much hard-earned money, it has come to pass that they know not what to believe.

Inasmuch as this unsatisfactory state of affairs exists, KNOW, THEREFORE, ALL PERSONS who are in need of such a medicine that we will supply them with VINOL on a POSITIVE GUARANTEE that if it does not succeed in benefiting them we will refund the entire amount of money paid us for it.

There is no one medicine that will cure everything, but there are some we know to be honest, reliable, and of great curative value. Such is VINOL; it is not a secret medicine,—just peptonate of iron, wine, and all the curative extractives of cod liver oil, combined. We are familiar with every particle of it, and KNOW that it should benefit every one who uses it.

Could any offer be more fair than this? You are ill; we offer you medicine which we believe will help you, and if it does not we will return your money. Is there anyone foolish enough not to accept this offer? You owe it to your family, to your friends, and yourself to try this medicine which we give you our pledge is a genuine cod liver and iron preparation of great merit.

We unhesitatingly recommend Vinol as a Body Builder and Strength Creator for Feeble Old People, Delicate Children, Frail Women, All Run Down Persons, and Those Needing a Good Tonic after the Grippe or any Severe Illness, and for Chronic Coughs, Colds and Bronchitis.

Do you think we could afford to lend our name to its praises, as we have been doing in the newspapers, if we did not know VINOL to be an honest and unusually valuable remedy for the ills for which it is prescribed? We certainly could not; we therefore ask you, our neighbors, friends and acquaintances to accept our assurances that this is a genuine offer, and that any and all persons who need a medicine of this character should feel a sense of security in accepting it.

You will absolutely be under no obligation to us whatever, if after you have tried one bottle of VINOL, and have not received any benefit, you have only to tell us so, and we will return the entire amount of money you paid us for it.

VINOL is an old and valuable remedy improved by modern science—tastes good and agrees with every one.

Call and get a bottle to-day. You won't be sorry.

LEMAY GETS FREEDOM.

Was Released from Jail at Decatur After Eight Months.

(Decatur Democrat.)

E. S. Kegg, the aged grandfather of Charles LeMay, who for eight months and one week has been a prisoner at the Adams county jail, came to the city this morning and paid to Clark James P. Haefling $239.40, the amount due to effect LeMay's release. Mr. LeMay, convicted of assault and battery on the person of Miss Mabel Metts, of Bluffton, has been a model prisoner. He soon proved himself a trusty to Sheriff Meyer, and on several occasions was permitted to do work in the yard, such as mowing the lawn, dusting carpets, etc. He was very happy when he was released from custody and left on the one o'clock car for Fort Wayne. He is a wood carver of ability and commands a high salary in piano factories whenever he works. He stated to a Democrat representative that it was good to be free after such long imprisonment. His many acquaintances here are glad to hear he is again free.

SHOT IN THE LEG BY COMPANION.

Little Fred Pratt Victim of First Accidental Shooting of the Season.

Fred Pratt, the 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pratt of 1416 Winter street, received a bullet from a flobert rifle in his leg Sunday morning as he was running with several other companions after a rabbit that had been espied while roaming over the fields a mile east of the city.

The rifle was in the hands of a young boy named Hobbs who was a few feet behind the unfortunate Pratt. The trigger of the rifle was cocked and in running Hobbs fell, discharging the bullet and young Pratt fell to the ground with a cry of pain.

His young friends ran to his aid and helped him to his home where the doctor stated that he feared no serious results. The bullet had lodged against the bone, but did not cause any fracture. It was removed this morning.

This may be squaw winter, but it is more like a premature delivery of the real thing that the weather-knocker usually laments for as the old-fashioned kind.

Probably Graft King Abe Ruef wishes his friend and adherent Haas had decided to stay on earth long enough to make it clear that Ruef had no part in a plot to kill Frank Heney. The shooting of Heney is well calculated to convince almost any open-minded jury that the Ruef crew would be a mighty good crew to get rid of

So far as the hearings now in progress before the ways and means committee at Washington have gone it is more or less clear that tariff revision is looked upon as merely giving the protected interests more of what they want. In Washington it is beginning to be felt that the hearings are not in good faith and that no real re-adjustment of the present schedules will be made, though Mr. Taft is more or less definitely under pledge to call an extra session of congress to revise the tariff immediately after his inauguration.

Any crusade on gambling should include the slot machines and any program of saloon law enforcement should include the poolrooms. It is just as unlawful to permit minors to play pool as it is to sell them intoxicants. Neither should be permitted and those who violate these laws should be punished. Strangely enough, the poolroom keepers seem to enjoy the same degree of immunity as the saloonkeepers. Within a few months half a dozen resorts of the kind have been started and they draw their chief patronage from boys and young men.

Edward Dunbar, author of the Sunday school hymn, "There's a Light in the Window for Thee, Brother," sleeps in a pauper's grave at Coffeyville, Kan., where he died a tramp in the town jail. One night he called at the Coffeyville jail for shelter. He was sick and the authorities took him in, and the next day he died. Some good people have lately erected a marble slab over his grave, on which these words are inscribed: "Here lies Edward Dunbar, who wrote: 'There's a Light in the Window for Thee, Brother.'" Thousands and thousands of children have sung that pathetic song. It is too bad that poor, unfortunate Edward Dunbar ended his career in darkness and saw only the light that came through the window of a jail as he was about to end his earthly career. Drink was the cause of his fall.

The world in general is much less interested in the death of the sturdy old dowager empress of China than in the policy that is to follow her disappearance from fields of state. Those best informed concerning the inside of Chinese affairs are seemingly of one accord in positiveness that the death of this remarkable and strong-minded woman will not in any wise cause any reaction from the policy of progressive government reform which has made recent advances of a most promising kind. What the effect of the death both of the emperor and the dowager empress almost at the same time will be on the people of China is problematical. The people do not yet know of the death of the sovereign and the ruler. Some of them will not know of it for a long time. Whether it will hasten the revolutionary outburst that has been predicted and for which great preparations are said to have been made by the revolutionary party or in a measure disarm the cause cannot even be speculated upon to any satisfaction. China is China and the logic and history of similar situations in the western world do not apply. At all events, there is not likely to be any dynastic change and the hope must be as the prospect appears that the great empire will keep on in the progress she has so lately begun.

WINTER HERE WITH WHEAT CROP IN BAD SHAPE

Dry Weather Has Hit It Badly and Outlook is Most Unpromising.

Reports from the farming district surrounding Fort Wayne indicate that the wheat crop is in bad shape with which to withstand the rigors of the winter now upon it, and that the local outlook is most unpromising. The wheat has suffered severely from the long drought and it is said to be deteriorating daily.

To begin with, not more than three-fourths of a crop was sown this fall, and its present condition is not so good as usual by at least twenty-five per cent. Farmers and grain experts say that from the present outlook Northern Indiana will not have to exceed one-fourth of a crop of wheat next year.

J. C. F. Sprankle, who returned a few days ago from a southern trip that took him as far as Mississippi, says that much the same conditions prevail over the territory between Michigan and Mississippi, and that the 1908 drought is the worst experienced in twenty years. This is likewise true of the country as far east as Pennsylvania.

Fort Wayne electric railway officials will go to Lima, Ohio, Thursday morning in the special car Lawton to attend the meeting of the Central Electric Railway association.

THE VERY FIRST SIGNS ARE ALWAYS IN THE BACK

Bright's Disease is Spreading—Best Not to Neglect Danger Signals.

Take care of backache. A great many cases of kidney complaint are reported about here; also bladder trouble and rheumatism.

An authority once stated that pain in the back, loins or region of the kidneys is the danger signal nature hangs out to notify the sufferer that there is something wrong with the kidneys, which should receive immediate attention. Only vegetable treatment should be administered and absolutely no strongly alcoholic medicines, which are harmful to the kidneys and bladder.

The following prescription, while simple, harmless and inexpensive, is known and recognized as a sovereign remedy for kidney complaint. The ingredients can be obtained at any good prescription pharamacy and anyone can mix them: Compound Kargon, one ounce; Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Shake well in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime.

This preparation is said to restore the natural function of the kidneys, so they will sift and strain the poisonous waste matter, uric acid, etc., from the blood, purifying it and relieving rheumatism. Backache will be relieved, the urine will be neutralized and cleared and no longer a cause of irritation, thereby overcoming such symptoms as weak bladder, painful, frequent and other urinary difficulties.

This is worth trying and may prove just what many people here need.

GIDEONS IN WORLD TO HELP THE NEEDY

Fine Sermon by Rev. Rowand to Travelling Men—Convention Closed.

The willingness of the Gideons to help those who are needy and who have been "down and out" was the theme chosen by Rev. Charles A. Rowand in his sermon to that body of Christian traveling men at his church Sunday morning. The church was filled to overflowing with the traveling men, their friends and members of the congregation of the First Methodist Episcopal church and an after meeting conducted by the Gideons was necessary.

Sunday was a busy and yet intensely interesting day for the men who held their state convention in this city Saturday and Sunday. An 8:30 sunrise meeting was held in the morning at the Arcade headquarters followed by the sermon at the Wayne street church. In the afternoon a mass meeting was held, the Arcade headquarters again being the gathering place and the convention concluded with a fine meeting at the Plymouth Congregational church in the evening. Altogether there were about one hundred men here attending the convention and the meetings yesterday attracted a number of other commercial men.

Claim of the Weak Upon the Strong.

In his sermon, Rev. Rowand spoke of the claim of the weak upon the strong, using as a setting for his theme the man at Bethesda, whom he called the man at the end of the procession. He said that it was easy to secure help for the man who is leading affairs but very difficult for the unfortunate at the end of the line, the man who is classed among the "down and out" division.

Rev. Rowand likened the Gideons to the man that stopped and helped the man who had waited at Bethesda for thirty-eight years for some one to lend him an aiding hand but all had passed by. The principle, "Every man for himself," is the underlying foundation of society, said Rev. Rowand and it is this inhumanity of man to man that makes countless millions sad. "And this is where the Gideons and other like organizations find their reason for existence," continued the speaker.

Rev. Rowand then told the story of the man at Bethesda and how he was made whole by the Christ. "On a never-forgotten day," he said, "there came to the pool of Bethesda a man who had a genius for seeing and helping those whom society had passed by. A few words of loving sympathy passed between them and the man was made whole. The attitude of Christ towards the man at Bethesda illustrates his habit with the needy. Before leaving the world he put his ruling ideas into such words as 'Lost Coin,' 'Lost Sheep,' and 'Lost Son.'"

President Kelsey Presided.

Owing to the absence of ex-State President W. C. Hall who was summoned to his home in Indianapolis by the sickness of his wife, President F. W. Kelsey, of the local camp, presided at the afternoon meeting which was purely an evangelistical one.

Discussions of various topics of interest to the Gideons were heard and it was decided to ask the ministers of the city to co-operate with them in establishing regular Men's Evangelistic services at the Gideon headquarters on the first Sunday of every month. The ministers will be requested to announce these meetings from their pulpits and it is purposed to make them extremely interesting.

During the afternoon a free-will offering was taken up and netted $9.01 which was turned over to Superintendent Cooper of the Rescue Home and Mission.

Concluding Meeting In Evening.

The concluding meeting of the convention was very largely attended and proved a most interesting one. Mr. Hevenor, of Indianapolis, delivered a short address in which he advanced the cause of closer fellowship. D. S. Ullrick, state president and national vice president, gave the principal address of the evening and he spoke upon "The Work of the Gideons."

Mr. Ullrick's address was given close attention. He spoke of the important factor that God is in the business life of the world and that one must believe in Him at every step in order to be finally successful. He spoke of the work of the order in placing Bibles in all the hotels and said that much success was being met with.

Noted Speaker to Be Here.

A convention of the National Christian association is to gather in the Bible Training school on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. There will be five sessions, beginning at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon and continuing through the following day and evening. Speakers from Washington, D. C., Chicago and elsewhere are expected and considerable good will undoubtedly result for those who attend.

Rev. L. G. Bears, of Peru, Ind., is the state president and will be in full charge of the convention. "Secret societies" are to be thoroughly discussed with relation to their effects upon church, family and state. A similar convention was held in the school last year and was so successful and productive of so much good that the association was invited to again hold its state gathering here. An interesting program has been arranged for the entire five meetings and the public is earnestly asked to attend as many of them as possible.

The assisting hostesses will be the Misses Stackhouse, Miss Helen Knight, Mrs. William Peltier, Mrs. Frederick B. Shoaff and Mrs. W. W. Rockhill.

It is believed that the acousticons that have been ordered for the church will be in place by next Sunday.

Forty Hours at St. Peter's.

The devotion of the forty hours closed with impressive services at St. Peter's Catholic church on Sunday evening. The three beautiful new altars were resplendent in the glow of electric lights and candles and adorned with choice flowers in profusion. The sermon was delivered in German by the well known Precious Blood missionary, Rev. V. H. Krull, C. P. P. S. There was a solemn procession of the Blessed Sacrament in which the local and many of the neighboring clergy, also the acolytes, the year's first communicants and the little boys and girls of the parochial school participated. An immense congregation crowded to the utmost the seating capacity of the spacious church. Under the capable direction of Prof. Leo Havorka the choir rendered an excellent musical program. The missionary preached in English at the high mass and was heard by a large congregation. Sunday being the patronal feast of St. Martin's society, composed of the married men of the congregation, the members of that society and also the members of St. Stephen's Young Mens' society received communion in a body at the 7:30 o'clock mass.

Church Notes.

The committee of twelve of the English Lutheran Church of the Redeemer will hold an important meeting on Wednesday evening.

So successful was the operetta "Sylvia," recently given by the Chorus club of St. Peter's Catholic church, that it has been decided to repeat the program. It will be produced in St. Mary's school hall on Sunday evening, November 22, and the proceeds will be used for the benefit of St. Joseph's Orphan asylum, Lafayette.

On Sunday evening, November 22, the choir of Plymouth Congregational church will give a Thanksgiving cantata in the church.

The young people of St. John's Reformed church are making preparations for the presentation of a cantata to be given next month.

Section five of the Ladies' Aid society of the Third Presbyterian church will be entertained at the home of Mrs. J. D. Gumpper, 2228 South Harrison street, on Thursday afternoon.

Rev. Theo. F. Hahn, pastor of the Church of the Redeemer, left today for Elyria, O., where he will spend the week attending the sessions of the Lake Erie conference of the Lutheran church.

Church Society Meetings.

Circle No. 4, of Westminster church, will have an all day meeting tomorrow with Mrs. J. D. Lewis, 814 West Wayne street.

Division No. 5 of the West Jefferson Street Church of Christ will meet tomorrow afternoon with Mrs. McCann, 1924 Hoagland avenue.

* * *

All meetings of the congregation and officers of the English Lutheran Church of the Redeemer scheduled for this week will be postponed owing to the absence of Rev. Theodore Hahn, who will attend the sessions of the Lake Erie conference at Elyria, Ohio. This does not include the meeting of the committee of twelve, which will meet on Wednesday evening.

UNITED IN CELEBRATION.

The congregations of the St. Paul's German Lutheran church and the English Lutheran Church of the Redeemer jointly celebrated the 425th anniversary of Martin Luther at the church of the former Sunday evening. Rev. Theodore Hahn, pastor of the English Lutheran church, delivered the address, which was in English. Martin Luther's life was the subject he chose and his address was brilliant, with many interesting incidents of Luther's career.

Martin Luther was born on the 10th of November, 1483, at Eislenben, Saxony, and lived until the 18th of February, 1546. Rev. Hahn dwelt at length upon the influence of Luther's life on both the religious and scientific life since that time.

Parisian Millinery

FROM JAS. MC CREERY & CO'S

Fetching in the extreme is this all white confection representing one of the newest designs in millinery for dressy winter wear. Its deep brim, which sets closely over the softly weaved chevoture, puffed at the sides and arranged in a classic psyche at the back, is of swansdown, while the draped crown is of white Ottoman rep. A beautiful snowy white bird of paradise suffices as the trimming for this natty turban.

Mrs. Henry Roembke, of 1329 Wall street, planned a surprise on her husband yesterday which gave not only Mr. Roembke much pleasure, but delighted all who had any part in the celebration. Cards were played and a supper furnished enjoyment. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Tony Hauck, Mrs. F. W. Mennowisch, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Lindenberg, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. F. Mennewisch, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Meinzen, Mrs. Kramer, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Meyer, Mrs. David Tegtmeyer, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Tegtmeyer, Miss Marie Mennewisch, Arthur Fleckenstein and Miss Della Lepper.

HOW TO CURE A COLD.

Be as careful as you can you will occasionally take cold, and when you do, get a medicine of known reliability, one that has an established reputation and that is certain to effect a quick cure. Such a medicine is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It has gained a world wide reputation by its remarkable cures of this most common ailment, and can always be depended upon. It acts on nature's plan, relieves the lungs, aids expectoration, opens the secretions and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition. During the many years in which it has been in general use we have yet to learn of a single case of cold or attack of the grip having resulted in pneumonia when this remedy was used, which shows conclusively that it is a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given to an adult. For sale by all druggists.

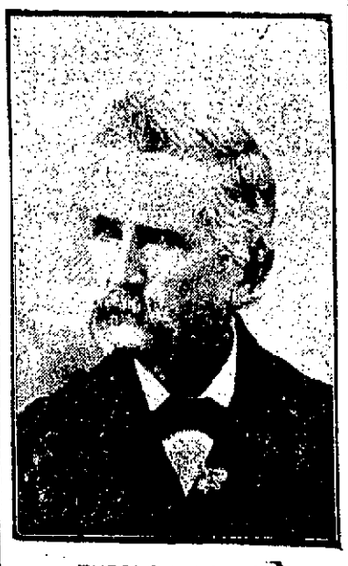
THREE SCORE AND TEN YEARS.

Theodore Geller, Well Known Citizen Celebrates Anniversary on Sunday.

A gathering of interest to many of the older citizens of the city, as well as to the immediate circle of relatives and friends of Theodore Geller, was held on Sunday at the Geller home, 665 Huffman street. The special occasion for the gathering was the fact of the day being the seventieth birthday celebration of Mr. Geller. Arrangements for the entertainment of the relatives and friends who attended were made by Mr. Geller's daughter, Miss Louise Geller, and by Mrs. Theodore H. Geller. The house was beautifully decorated with chrysanthemums.



THEODORE GELLER.

A dinner which fairly loaded the tables with its abundance of good things was enjoyed by the company. At the head of one table sat Mr. Geller, honor guest of the day, and by his side sat Mrs. Kabish, a life long friend of the same age of Mr. Geller. Both Mrs. Kabish and Mr. Geller were confirmed in the same class in the Lutheran church in Koenigsberg, Germany, and both have spent the greater part of their lives in Indiana. Mr. Geller has always been a devoted Lutheran and even now is an active member of Christ's Evangelical church. He is hale and hearty and gives little indication of having lived three score years and ten. In addition to the many expressions of affection and high esteem from children and friends, Mr. Geller received a number of useful and handsome gifts. One of them, a Morris chair upholstered in leather, afforded him great pleasure, as it was a gift of all the children together.

Theodore Geller was born November 16, 1838, in Koenigsberg, Hesendarmstat, Germany. He came to this country October 2, 1857, and settled in New York city. Shortly after his arrival he married Miss Catherine Martin. The surviving children are William F. Geller, the well known Broadway baker; Theodore H. Geller, Mrs. Peter Trimmel, Miss Louise Geller, all of Fort Wayne; George Geller, of Huntington, and Charles Geller, of Portland, Oregon. In March, 1859, Mr. Geller visited Fort Wayne, but returned to New York after a week's visit and it was not until the summer of 1867 that he settled in this city. Shortly after his arrival he purchased six acres of land in the north part, where he built the homestead now standing at 665 Huffman street. Mr. Geller is a staunch patriot and four years after his arrival in the land of his adoption he left his wife and children and risked his life for the union. In 1861 he enlisted in company H, Seventh New York volunteer infantry, in the regiment known as the Steuben rangers. For two years during the most critical period of the war Mr. Geller served his adopted country and one of his dearest delights is to relate anecdotes of these stirring times. He is a charter member and past commander of the Sion S. Bass post, G. A. R., never fails to attend the state and national encampments, and is one of the post's most loyal and enthusiastic members. His son, William F. Geller, is a conspicuous figure in the order of Sons of Veterans.

Ann Arbor, Mich., Nov. 16.—Student sentiment as expressed today is of the deepest gloom, the majority having been confident of at least holding Penn to a low score, although it is acknowledged the Quakers played superior football.

But as Allerdice played practically the whole game with a broken collar bone, and Schulz, whose tackles were the feature of the first half, received an injury to his hip, the defeat is not so humiliating.

Allerdice was injured in the first five minutes, colliding with Hollenbeck. Both men were laid out. It was not until after the game that the nature of Allerdice's injury was discovered. Dr. Waldron set the fracture today. He said it would be three weeks before the player could use his arm. This means that Green will go in at right half in Saturday's game with Syracuse. Schulz probably will play on Saturday.

CARRIED STRENGTH OF TEAM.

Defeat Was Bad, But Schulz was Forced Out.

Ann Arbor, Mich., Nov. 16.—Pennsylvania, 29; Michigan, 0. The worst defeat ever suffered by a Wolverine football team. The big red team of Quakers literally tore Yost's machine to shreds Saturday, and the most unhappy catastrophe from a Michigan standpoint is the fact that not one particle of solace for the vanquished could be found after Pennsy had finished its deadly work.

Absolutely outplayed in every point of comparison, the Wolverines were painfully weak in the hands of those Titians from the City of Brotherly Love. There always is some satisfaction in knowing you are beaten by a good team, and most certainly Penn proved it was one magnificent eleven. Not a weak spot from end to end could be found on the Quaker team, while those great backs, particularly Captain Hollenback, were the princes of the football field.

There were apparent reasons for the downfall of the Wolverines. Only one Michigan man outplayed his rival—Schulz, closing his football career, gave a splendid exhibition at center and was the bulwark of Michigan's defense. When he was compelled to retire in the second half away went three-fourths of the Wolverines' defensive strength.

Schulz had played a masterly defensive game for his team and was scarcely able to walk off the field. Brennan took "Germany's" place. The Pennsylvania attack become more powerful than ever with Schulz removed and began plowing through Michigan's line in a splendid procession to another touchdown. Captain Hollenback carried the ball over the line with a five-yard plunge after a succession of line plays that actually split the Michigan line to splinters. Scarlett kicked goal and the score was 29 to 0.

Coach Metzger began tossing substitutes into the game to relieve his great fellows, who had worked themselves out in smashing down the Wolverines' defense. Pike, Cozzens, Crooks, Sommers and Reagan were given places for the regulars at different times, but the changes seemed to make no difference with the efficiency of the Penn machine, which was in possession of the ball on Michigan's thirty-yard line when the final whistle blew.

HOPKE MISSED SOME GAMES IN FORT WAYNE

Had Misunderstanding and Was Out of Team Several Days.

A number of Central league papers are running a feature story with a picture of Billy Hopke with the statement that he and Ed Konetchy, of the St. Louis Nationals, have not missed a game in seven years. Hopke is one of the most consistent performers in the game today and is extremely fortunate in avoiding injury and illness and the little story about his long period of unbroken playing is most too good to puncture but it is not true.

When Hopke was a member of the Fort Wayne team after graduating from the Cleveland lots he played through one season without a break and possibly went through two but the third year he was in Fort Wayne he became discouraged because he was not drafted or sold and he and Isadore Mautner, who was then owner of the club, locked horns. He did not report for the game here next day and the club went to Grand Rapids and played a series and then to South Bend and played one game there before he finally quit sulking and got back to his position.

He missed at least four and possibly more games while he was holding out and thus his unbroken record of seven years was badly punctured as it has not been that long since he left Fort Wayne, first for Canton and then for Indianapolis.

* * *

The story that Angus Grant will manage and own Grand Rapids next season is still going the rounds in spite of the fact that Bert Annis was given to understand in Chicago last week that such a deal will not be approved by the Central league directors. The reason given is a good one.

Dr. F. R. Carson, the president of the organization, and a number of the directors agree that such a sale would have the earmarks of syndicate ball and they are opposed to it. However, Annis owns Grant's contract and the Grand Rapids franchise and if he has a mind to dispose of both he can probably do so. It is not likely though that the deal will be approved, although it would be more or less of an injustice to Grant to refuse him the privilege of making a bona fide purchase of the holdings.

* * *

Tim Murnane, writing for the Chicago Record-Herald of the minor leagues meeting last week, pays a high compliment to Dr. F. R. Carson of the Central league, when he says in speaking of the American association's effort to get control: "Dr. Carson, the able president of the Central league—one of the really high-class baseball organizations—insisted on having the question more thoroughly discussed."

MAY PLAY INDEPENDENT BALL.

Association and Eastern League Seek Rights, Says Tebeau.

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 16.—"If our demands are not met at the meeting to be held at Buffalo Wednesday, the American association and the Eastern league will play independent ball the comin season. Understand I said independent ball." This is the positive declaration of George Tebeau, owner of the Kansas City and Louisville franchises in the American association.

Taking into consideration the fact that Tebeau is the dominant factor in the association, it would seem that there is to be capitulation on the part of the major leagues or else another independent baseball organization. Tebeau says he has the support of some of the best known baseball men in the country who agree that the demands of the American association and Eastern league are no more than equitable at the present time. These two associations are practically deprived of the draft privilege owing to the aggressiveness of the major leagues who are privileged to grab every player of prominence in sight.

"Unless they put the American association and Eastern league in a class by themselves," declares Tebeau, "and give us the privilege of drafting from all other minor leagues which shall be classed below us and at the same time agree to do their own drafting exclusively from the American association and the Eastern league, the major league will have to contend with us as an independent organization."

STORY CORNER FOR BASEBALL FANS.

Hughey Jennings, who has put through a few startling plays himself, says the greatest baseball play he ever saw was pulled off by John McGraw and Willie Keeler in a game in Baltimore back in the 90s.

"Unlike most of the great plays one calls to mind," says Jennings, "this wasn't a fielding stunt, but a piece of base running. Keeler was on first base and McGraw at bat. John shot a neat single into left field and Al Selbach—we were playing against the old Washington club that day—loafed a bit on it, seeing that Keeler was sure to make third with ease, but expecting him to pull up there. Willie, instead of pulling up, put on a full head of steam and before Joyce had received the ball was virtually over the plate. McGraw never stopped at first, but kept on to second to draw a throw that would enable Keeler to score.

"Selbach's loaf was duly recognized and like a flash John guessed that Keeler was going home. He never hesitated at second, but dashed for third, arriving there just as Joyce was gathering in Selbach's throw out on the grass. Right here McGraw did some quick thinking. He remembered that Joyce had a bad arm and thought the catcher would not be expecting a throw. Without pulling up at third at all, he set sail for the plate. His reasoning turned out to be right. The dust from Keeler's slide was just lifting as McGraw dived for the plate, beating the throw on a close decision. There were two runs scored on what should have been only a single, though the scorers had to give McGraw credit for a home run, of course. It was that sort of ball that won pennants for Baltimore."

Sullivan, the veteran first sacker for Louisville, hands the "kid" at short range, rather than at a distance where the grandstands can enjoy it. Likewise, George Tabeau doesn't spend any more money than he has to for uniforms or laundry bills. The Night Riders, a year ago, had 14 home suits and 16 for the road.

At the time when the gentle dig was passed over on Tabeau, Tabeau had signed a new pitcher, and calling Suter aside, Tabeau said to him:

"Hunt him up a home uniform."

"We have only 13, and there are enough of us now to fill these up," said Suter. "You will have to buy another."

"Not this late in the season," replied the boss. "Besides, the club is drawing too poorly. You must fix it up one way or another."

Suter scratched his head a minute and then drawled:

"Say, George, I have got it all right now."

"How's that?"

"Transfer the games scheduled for Louisville to Kansas City, and then we'll have enough uniforms to spare."

Tabeau ordered another white uniform.

WHAT WOULD YOU DO?

In case of a burn or scald what would you do to relieve the pain? Such injuries are liable to occur in any family and everyone should be prepared for them. Chamberlain's Salve applied on a soft cloth will relieve the pain almost instantly, and unless the injury is a very severe one, will cause the parts to heal without leaving a scar. For sale by all druggists.

IN THE THEATERS

"The Servant in the House," a play that has been acknowledged by the best critics of the drama in New York and Chicago as one of the greatest ever written, opens a three days' engagement at the Majestic theater tonight. The company to present the play here tonight embraces several well known actors and only seven are required in the cast. Creston Clarke, who has not been seen in this city for a number of years, when he played "Richelieu" at the Temple theater, will enact the role of Manson, the servant. Clay Clement, who has won his reputation in Shakespearian roles, "The Bells" and other equally important plays, will be the opposite of Mr. Clarke. George Wilson, one of the very best character actors of the American stage, is cast in the role of the Bishop of Lancashire. Last season Mr. Wilson played Colonel Starbottle in "Salomey Jane," in New York. He also played with Sothern in "If I Were King." Stanley Drewitt, who has the part of the English clergyman, is an English actor whom Henry Miller, who presents the play and the company in this city, secured from the Court theater, London. Lizzie Hudson Collier was Henry Miller's leading woman for several years and she has the role of the vicar's wife. Winona Shannon, a sister of Miss Effie Shannon, has the ingenue role.

Mr. Clarke is a nephew of Edwin Booth and he is a star of high rank. Outside of Shakespearian roles Mr. Clarke has scored a hit in "Monsieur Beaucaire." The company appearing in this city will play in Indianapolis, Milwaukee, St. Paul, Denver and other large western cities.

LUTHERANS ATTACK POPE IN LETTER TO ROOSEVELT

Evangelical Synod Calls Him for Not Opposing Catholics.

New York, Nov. 16.—A committee of clergymen of the synodical conference of the Evangelical Lutheran church of America forwarded to President Roosevelt on Saturday an open letter in which it takes a sharp slap at him for writing to a correspondent in Dayton, O., last week a letter in which he denounced as "unwarranted bigotry" any refusal to vote for a candidate for high office because of his membership in the Roman Catholic church.

The committee wrote to President Roosevelt that he ought to know that for centuries the Catholic church had done all it could to prevent the separation of church and state, and intimated that in America there were many of that faith who sought to carry their church into politics.

"Convinced of your deep sincerity," the letter opens, "and in full agreement with you as to the fundamental principle of separation of church and state, as enunciated in your letter to J. C. Martin, the members and pastors of our church and other churches as well have been amazed to see the indiscriminate self-contradictory application you make of that principle in itself, and this stricture is made by you on those who might refuse to vote for a Roman Catholic for the highest office in the gift of the people."

Recalls History of Church.

"Of course, it is subversive of the basic principle of the real separation of church and state to permit the religious belief or the non-belief of any candidate for public office to determine the casting of one's vote for or against such a candidate except when that religious belief or unbelief antagonizes this principle and all those rights and liberties that are included therein and safeguarded thereby. We agree with you, therefore, that these citizens are to be severely criticised who vote against a man merely because he is a Unitarian, Jew, Methodist, or of any other religion. But are you not aware of the fact that the Roman Catholic church has again and again for centuries back denounced as wholly wrong and as things to be tolerated only so long as they cannot be changed, the complete separation of church and state, full religious liberty, freedom of conscience, of speech, and of the press, and that, moreover, it proclaims its teachings and principles to be unchangeable?

"Are we not compelled to maintain that a loyal Roman Catholic who fully understands the allegience required of him by the pope can never sincerely subscribe to the federal constitution, or, if he does, never can be expected to abide by it, enforce, and defend it? Papacy and vaticanism cannot be separated from the Roman Catholic religion."

Asks if All Are Bigots.

The letter next asks the president if all the Lutherans and other denominations in the country are to be branded as bigots and denounced as disloyal citizens because they believe that the chance should not be given to a Catholic to choose between his duty to his church and his duty to his country when holding high office.

The letter closes with a demand that the president show the error of its writers, if they are in error, or that he admit that the contention set forth in the communication is correct. Presupposing the latter to be the case, the letter relies upon the president's willingness to show his "unquestioned sincerity and courage."

ENJOYED A BANQUET.

Members of United Commercial Travelers Sit at Feast.

Fort Wayne council, No. 12, United Commercial Travelers, enjoyed a fine banquet Saturday evening in the Odd Fellows' building. Harry Maxwell presided as toastmaster, and the committee on arrangements included Charles Pichon, Edward Kolb, Harry Lowry and G. O. Feustel. Speakers of the occasion dwelt entertainingly upon the beneficient operations of the fraternity in its ministrations to the widows and orphans of its members.

Fort Wayne Outfitters Co.

Too early to speak of future permanent location which will be probably at the old stand when the same is thoroughly renovated and improved.

SO the PEOPLE MAY KNOW

The stock which was thoroughly damaged by fire was sold by the underwriters to a Salvage Company, the Fort Wayne Outfitters Company having refused to accept any of it in settlement of claims, as such furniture once thoroughly soaked by water or injured by smoke or almost totally destroyed by fire, is, in the opinion of the Fort Wayne Outfitters Company, of no value whatsoever. Some parties have, however, visited our store under the impression that we were interested in the damaged goods and would put the same in repair. We therefore consider it expedient to let the people know that we are in no wise connected with the sale of the damaged goods and are not responsible for the disappointment caused by the purchase of same.

S.S.S. DRIVES OUT RHEUMATISM

Rheumatism is in reality an internal inflammation—a diseased condition of the blood cells which supply the nourishment and strength necessary to sustain our bodies. Uric acid, an irritating, inflammatory accumulation, gets into the circulation because of physical irregularities, and then instead of nourishing and invigorating the body, the blood irritates and inflames the different nerves, tissues, muscles and joints, because of its impure, acrid condition. The pains and aches and other disagreeable and dangerous symptoms of Rheumatism can never be permanently cured until every particle of the cause is driven from the blood. S. S. S. does this because it is a perfect blood purifier. It goes down to the very bottom of the trouble, purifies and cleanses the circulation, invigorates the blood, and completely drives Rheumatism from the system. Plasters, liniments, soothing lotions, etc., may be used for the temporary relief and comfort they bring, but a cure cannot be effected until S. S. S. has removed the cause. It frees the blood of every impurity and makes it a rich, health sustaining fluid, to bring permanent relief and comfort to those who suffer with Rheumatism. Book on Rheumatism and any medical advice free to all who write.

CONDUCTOR SAM WORMAN MEETS DEATH AT HAMLET

Struck by Fast Express Train and Hurled Thirty Feet.

Samuel O. Worman, of 1913 East Creighton avenue, a Pennsylvania conductor, was instantly killed at Hamlet about 10 o'clock Saturday night by being struck by the engine pulling fast mail and express train No. 11, westbound.

Conductor Worman had charge of an eastbound train and had orders to give the right of way to a fast through freight going in the same direction. His train had taken the siding at Hamlet for that purpose and Mr. Worman had gone to the telegraph office for orders, when the fast freight pulled past the station. Just as the caboose passed the building, the conductor started for his train on the south side and walked in front of the rapidly moving westbound express train. The pilot picked him up and hurled him about thirty feet, to the side of the track, but beyond reach of the wheels, crushing his skull and bruising his body badly, causing instant death.

Engineer J. C. McCarthy and Fireman L. F. Wood were in the cab of the express train engine. The former saw a lantern fly up as he passed Hamlet and fearing that the engine had struck a man, he stopped and began an investigation which resulted in finding the dead body where the engine had thrown it.

The remains were taken to a nearby house and the coroner of Starke county, who resides in Knox, was notified. He could not go to Hamlet at once and refused to appoint a deputy, and the remains were not released until late Sunday afternoon, when they were brought to this city on No. 8, arriving here last night at 7:35 o'clock. They were met at the depot and taken to the Bloom undertaking establishment and thence to the family residence, where the funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 1:30 o'clock and at the Free Methodist church at 2 o'clock.

Samuel O. Worman was the son of Engineer Jacob Worman, who died about a year ago. He was born at Avilla, Ind., May 4, 1867, and was forty-one years and seven months old. He was married to Miss Mary Wass, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel L. Wass, of this city, on August 19, 1890, and she and seven children survive him. The children are Miss Jessie, seventeen years old; Garland, fourteen; Waye, twelve; Alfred, nine; Alta Glenn, six; Jacob, three, and Wanda, eleven months old. Other surviving relatives are the aged mother, Mrs. Jacob Worman, of Espie, Pa., and three sisters and three brothers. The sisters are Mrs. Charles Carpenter, Miss Lizzie Worman, who reside in Espie, Pa., and Miss Birdie Worman, of this city. The brothers are Will and Harry Worman, of Fort Wayne, and Roy Worman, of Espie. All have been notified and will be here to attend the funeral.

Samuel Worman's connection with the Pennsylvania dates from December 21, 1895, when he became a brakeman on the road. He was previously engaged at railway work on another road several years. On December 20, 1902, he was promoted to conductor, a position he held up to the sad affair which coused his death. He was not connected with any of the railway brotherhoods and so far as could be learned, was not a member of any other society, except the Pennsylvania Relief association.

SAMUEL O. WORMAN,
Pennsylvania Conductor Who Was Instantly Killed Saturday.

LABEL LEAGUES MEETING.

If the plans of the people back of the movement carry there will be a preliminary organization of a Women's Union Label league at Carpenters' hall next Friday evening. The movement was inaugurated by the Fort Wayne Federation of Labor several months ago, but on account of the election and some other matters, it was not pushed along as rapidly as it would have been under different circumstances. The union men of the city and their wives are requested to be at the meeting next Friday evening, and to come with the determination of taking definite action towards the formation of the league. President L. D. Redding, of the federation, will be present and will probably preside. Other interested parties who will be at the meeting are Clayton Johnson, H. W. Smith, Charles Habecker, Adolph Baehr, G. A. Kiefer, H. C. Hoeltje, E. Wright, Persy Bell, G. B. Place and E. Wright.

TRYING NEW BRAKE SHOE.

The Fort Wayne and Wabash Valley Traction company has cars 130 and 114, of the city lines, and 307, of the interurban lines, equipped with brake shoes made by the Lima Brake Shoe company, and may adopt them as the standard for the Traction lines. These shoes are a recent invention and are being introduced by C. H. Doebler, who was recently appointed manager of the Brake Shoe company. Mr. Doebler says "these shoes are the only correct thing of their kind," and his vast experience in such matters gives weight to the assertion. Mr. Doebler was formerly master mechanic of the Wabash.

HOUSE BUILDING CONTINUES.

The cold weather does not seem to have interferred in the least with the house building trade in Fort Wayne, there being more work of that kind on hand today than there was during the summer months. New buildings started this morning are a house on West Main street by Contractor Fred Boester for R. C. Work and a store building at the corner of Lafayette and Leith streets for Fred A. Allgeier, formerly of the firm of Rauner & Allgeier. Contractor Charles J. Weimar has this contract.

AMERICAN RAILWAY ASSOCIATION.

The American Railway association will hold its regular semi-annual meeting in Chicago next Wednesday. The gathering will attract considerable interest from railway men, as it always does.

ENGINEERS HAVE MEETING.

The regular meeting of the Fort Wayne section of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers was held Thursday evening, November 12, and was exceedingly well attended. The meeting was preceded by the usual dinner held at the Homestead cafe and followed by a smoker during the address by J. J. Kline, of the Fort Wayne Electric works, on "Paralelling of Alternators." This paper was followed by a very active discussion by the members present, most of whom have been actively engaged as engineers in the consideration of central power station practice.

CALLED TO SEE OLD FRIENDS.

A most welcome visitor at the Pennsylvania round house and offices this morning was Captain Frank H. Whitney, now employed as engineer in the canal work at Panama. Years ago Mr. Whitney was one of the best known passenger engineers on the Pennsylvania road, but ill health compelled him to resign and he took a position as deputy sheriff. Later he became captain of the city police and when he resigned the latter position it was to take his present position with the government.

WABASH IMPROVEMENT BEGINS.

The work of electrifying the Wabash shops has practically commenced. W. A. Hopkins, chief electrician of the company, is here to direct it and will soon have some of the motors installed. It is a big job and it will not be finished until the latter part of the winter, because it is to be carried on without interfering with operations in the shops.

HEAVY PIPE FELL ON HIM.

One of the heavy pipes used in the scaffolding at the Pennsylvania erecting shop for the men at work on engines fell Saturday at noon and struck J. S. Johnson, a machinist, a terrific blow in the side of the head and shoulders. No bones were broken, but the flesh was painfully bruised and the injured man will be unable to work for several days.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

The G. R. & I. paymaster will be in Fort Wayne tomorrow on his monthly cash distributing trip.

Boilermaker Thomas Goudy resumed his work at the Bass shops this morning, after an absence of several days.

Hammersmith Alonzo Timmis has been absent from his work at the Bass shops several days on account of sickness.

Thomas H. Forbes has been employed at the Pennsylvania blacksmith shop to take the place of E. P. Wolf, resigned.

After an illness of three weeks, John McDorman resumed work at the factory of Rhinesmith & Simonson this morning.

A carload of powder machinery left the Bass works today for the west. It is a part of a big order placed by the DePont Powder company.

The Bass machine shop has completed a 24x36 piston valve engine for parties in Texas and it will be shipped some time this week.

John A. Kissinger, of the Wabash shops, and his wife were host and hostess to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Overdear, of Roanoke, over Sunday.

Cashier J. A. Parnin, of the Nickel Plate at Stony Island, was the guest of Traveling Passenger Agent Frank Parnin and other relatives over Sunday.

Ill health has compelled Henry Stemler to relinquish his place on the pay rolls at the Electric works. He will take up less confining employment.

M. D. Maher, general manager of the Norfolk and Western company, will pass through the city in his private car on Pennsylvania train No. 11, this evening.

General Manager J. H. P. Hughart, of the G. R. & I., who had been east on business for the company, passed through the city Saturday night en route to Grand Rapids.

Machinist Teddy Michels, of the Electric works, and a companion, brought in twenty rabbits Saturday night. They killed the cotton tails northeast of the city a few miles.

Incoming freight train 79 on the Wabash had a slight accident at New Haven Saturday night which delayed it over an hour. Nobody was hurt and the property loss was trifling.

Agent Clyde Pritchard, of the Nickel Plate, and his wife were hosts yesterday to Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Snyder, of Leipsic, Ohio. Mr. Snyder is a trainman in the employ of the Nickel Plate.

Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Cooper, of Springfield, Ill., are here, having been called by news of the serious illness of her mother. Mr. Cooper is a blacksmith and several years ago was thus employed in the Wabash shops in this city.

John Allen, a passenger car builder at the Pennsylvania shops, who has been engaged on special work for a year or two, was called to Dayton, Ohio, on business for the company this morning.

Charles Cherry, jr., who has been ill with appendicitis, resumed work at the Pennsylvania shops this morning. Until he fully regains strength he will serve as clerk for Foreman P. J. Sweeney in the electrical department.

August Bultmeier will return from North Dakota the latter part of the month, probably to resume his old place in the Fort Wayne Electric works. He was employed there prior to going to North Dakota last spring to work on a farm.

The Wabash has commenced the shipment of hay from Roanoke to the south and for a while will send all suitable available cars there to be loaded. The crop in that part of the country is the heaviest in history.

F. A. Knoche left today for Wittenburg, Germany, where he will install a number of oil tanks in the branch factory of the Singer Sewing Machine company. S. F. Bowser & Company have the contract of equipping the plant.

Between 400 and 500 car loads of granite will pass through the city, over the Wabash, within the next thirty days. The granite is coming from the quarries in Vermont and will be used in building a large cathedral in St. Louis. The freight is turned over to the Wabash at Detroit by the Michigan Central lines.

Burton Telley, of the Pennsylvania round house, was host to a party of young boys yesterday, when he took them opt in the country eleven miles and gave them the "time of their lives." The party was the result of an election bet, but none of the participants got more pleasure out of it than the good-natured, jolly host.

J. F. Tiernan has an affected eye, Jacob Waldschmidt has an injured hand and J. Horstmeyer, W. A. Kurtzman and Paul Hanley are sick. All are Pennsylvania employes. William Lepper, who had been sick three weeks, and H. F. Geerken, who had been sick about a week, reported for duty this morning, the former in the planing mills and the latter in the car machine shop.

F. G. Gauntt has returned from Toledo, where he attended a meeting of the Ohio Millers and Grain Dealers' association. Mr. Gauntt is at the head of an establishment engaged in the manufacture of mill feeds, an ingenious machine that millers are finding indispensable in the manufacture of flour and other mill products.

Henry Ryder, agent of the American Locomotive company, who was here several months three years ago, superintending the work of connecting up a lot of new engines for the Wabash, is now engaged in a similar work for the Michigan Central at Jackson. He writes a friend that he will soon visit Fort Wayne. Mr. Ryder, after he left this city, went to Chile and spent a year in the interest of the American Locomotive works.

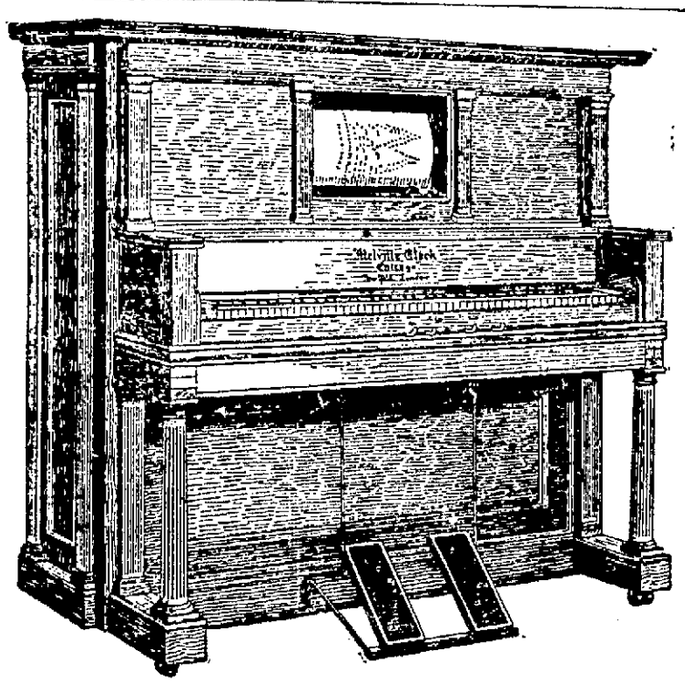
Celebrated Makes of Pianos

HANDLED BY THE

Geo. Jacobs Music House

MASON & HAMLIN, KRANICH & BACH, KRAKAUER, SHONINGER, BOGART, VOUGH, CABLE-NELSON, SMITH & BARNES, HADDORFF, CLARENDON, KELLAR AND OTHERS

Reasons Why You Should Call at Jacobs Music House Before Purchasing a Piano



BECAUSE we are sure to please you with an instrument, no matter what price you wish to pay. We give you the best that can be obtained for the money.

BECAUSE we don't tell you we can save you $50 on a piano and at the same time try to get $50 more than the other fellow gets.

BECAUSE we have never had to offer inducements, such as guessing and prize contests to stimulate trade. You can't get something for nothing. We give our customers value received.

BECAUSE we positively carry the highest grades of pianos in the city.

BECAUSE you take no chance in buying a piano at the Jacobs music store. He has been selling to your friends and neighbors for nearly twenty years and is actuated by the desire to give the customer the largest possible value for the money invested.

BECAUSE we don't advertise one thing and do another. We mean what we say.

BECAUSE we are independent of any one manufacturer and buy only what we know to be the best for the money. We have the pick of them all.

BECAUSE we are not obliged to tell you one particular piano is the best on earth because we do not handle a better one; it would not stand comparison.

BECAUSE the pianos we sell are the standard makes of the world and have a fixed value.

BECAUSE we give as good terms as the next man, no matter what they are.

These are facts which you should think over in your mind, and there can be but one conclusion—the Jacobs music house is the place to buy your piano.

We always have a number of second-hand square and upright pianos that we trade in, which you can buy at almost your own price.

THE MARKETS

GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Chicago Market.

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 16.—The local wheat market opened firm on buying by several of the leading commission houses, prices being unchanged to ¼@⅝c higher compared with the previous close. Moderate advances at the principal European grain centers were the basis of the initial firmness. Early in the session an easier tone developed on selling based on liberal receipts in the northwest and especially at Winnipeg. December opened at $1.03½ to $1.03¾ and sold off to $1.03¼. Minneapolis, Duluth and Chicago reported receipts of 1,142 cars.

The wheat market was a quiet affair during the last half of the day and a heavy tone prevailed. December sold off to $1.02⅝. The market closed weak with prices at the lowest point, December being off ⅝c at $1.02⅝.

After a good opening the corn market became rather weak on profit taking. The principal selling pressure was on the May delivery. Local receipts were considerably in excess of what had been estimated and this was largely accountable for the selling. December opened a shade lower to ⅛@¼c higher at 63¼@63½c and sold off to 63⅛c. Receipts were 202 cars.

Prices steadily declined until December touched 62¾c. The market closed weak at the bottom with December down ⅝@¾c at 62⅝c.

Oats were firm, owing to buying by cash houses. Trade was light because of a scarcity of offerings. December opened unchanged at 48⅞c and advanced to 49⅛c.

Provisions were weak because of a fifteen cent decline in live hogs. The bulk of trading was in pork. Prices at the opening were a shade to 12½c lower.

The Close.

Prices at the close were as follows:

Wheat—December, $1.02⅝; May, $1.07; July, $1.01⅛.

Corn—November, 62⅝c; December, 62⅝c; May, 62½c; July, 61⅞c; September, 61¾c.

Oats—December, 48¾c; May, 50¾c; July, 46¼c.

Pork—December, $14.45; January, $16.02½; May, $16.12½@16.15.

Lard—November, $9.20; January, $9.15; May, $9.27½.

Ribs—January, $8.40; May, $8.55@8.57½.

Rye—Cash, 74½@75c; December, 74c; May, 75¼c.

Barley—Cash, 59@65c.

Timothy—November, $3.87½; March, $3.95@4.10.

Clover—March, $9.25.

STOCKS AND BONDS.

The Day on Wall Street.

New York, Nov. 16.—Prices of American securities had been carried down from a fraction to nearly apoint in the London market before trading began here. The New York opening showed some sympathy with the movement, declines being general which amounted to a large fraction in most of the active speculative issues, in cluding the metal industrials and several of the grangers. Union Pacific declined a point and Utah Copper 1¼. Tennessee Copper on the other hand reflected a speculative flurry i nthe running purchases of 5,000 shares at quotations all the way from 50 to 52, compared with 49¼ on Saturday. Illinois Central rose 1½ points.

Prices in the general list were pulled up moderately in sympathy with the strdength in special stocks, but yielded slightly again before noon. Long Island Railroad rose 5 points, Detroit United Railways 3¼, Metropolitan Street Railway 3½. Chicago Great Western 2¼, the preferred A 4. National Lead 1¼ and Baltimore & Ohio, Amalgamated Copper and American Cotton Oil and Hide and Leather preferred 1. Lackawanna declined 4. Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha preferred 3. New Haven 1¼ and Northwestern and Colorado & Southern second preferred 1 point. Bonds were heavy.

The prominent stocks made a more uniform show of strength, following an advance in Union Pacific and Baltimore & Ohio. The specialties continued to be dealt in spots, but the usual favorites were again the most in demand. Baltimore & Ohio improved 2¼. American Cotton Oil 2, and Union Pacific, Denver & Rio Grande preferred, Norfolk & Western, American Smelting and Pacific Mail 1. Long Island goe up 10 points.

Union Pacific rose to 182, eclipsnf its price of last week. While there was a steady absorption of other stocks, the speculation lacked the animation of the earlier dealings. Reading moved up 2⅛. Great Northern preferred 2¾, and Kansas & Texas preferred 1. American Linseed and Sioss-Sheffield Steel yielded 1.

LOCAL MARKET EPITOME.

There were no changes evident in produce markets in this city today. The wholesale Barr street market was nearly a blank as the farmers wish to bring in big receipts toward the latter part of the week in anticipation of Thanksgiving demands. It is predicted that the turkey market will remain at 13 and 14c per pound for live stock at least for this week. The prices next week may change if the receipts and demands show any wide variations. The chicken, butter, egg, apple and potato markets are unchanged from those of Saturday.

Said G. H. Crouse, of the commission house of Howenstein and Crouse, this morning, "Markets tomorrow will be firm with fair receipts in the lines usual for this season of the year. Demands tomorrow will run about the same as they have been with the turkey market taking on a little more life."

Poor Tools and a Good Worker

That Is What Makes Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Taste, Foul Breath and Catarrh.

The stomach is a good, strong, vital organ, which is constantly protecting and feeding every other organ of the body.

It is the most abused, neglected and scorned member of man also. Most men abuse their stomach with undercooked food, high living, alcohol, tobacco, pastries and scores of other unhealthy practices.

When the stomach at last sickens of all this abuse and cannot do its full duty, most men are not warned, but keep up their assaults on the stomach until at last it rebels and begins to strike back and cry for help. Man by his own abuse has taken away from the stomach the tools to work with.

These tools are the gastric juices which go to make up the digestive agents. From 7 to 35 pounds of gastric juice are turned into the stomach every day.

When poor, poisonous food consumes this juice, dilutes it, robs it of its strength and throws it, a fermented mass from the system, of course there is just that much of the gastric fluid which cannot be readily supplied by the blood.

When food comes into a stomach filled with depleted fluids lacking of power to do their part, the good, strong stomach is using poor tools and, of course, cannot succeed in its work.

A condition which often prevails is that which takes place when the gastric juice contains too much alkali. If the juice were wholly alkaline it would not only devour and digest the fluid, but would eat and digest the stomach itself. Such gastric fluid does the digestion no good and attacks the walls of the stomach, making them raw and sore and setting up inflammation and irritation.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will strengthen a stomach filled with poor gastric juice. They will remove any abnormal alkaline condition, allay irritation, sweeten the breath, remove catarrhal conditions and digest food no matter how the stomach has acted before.

These little tablets contain an ingredient, one grain of which will digest perfectly 3,000 grains of food. They will digest an entire meal placed in a jar without the aid of any other force except themselves. They have demonstrated this time after time.

Every druggist carries them in stock; price 50c, and 40,000 physicians use them in their practice. Send us your name and adddress and we will mail you at once a trial package free. Address F. A. Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

NOT UNTIL JANUARY.

H. B. McClure Sent to California and Proposed Meeting Postponed.

The committeemen in charge of the proposed lecture by H. B. McClure, scientific expert of the agriculture department at Washington, D. C., have just received advice that Mr. McClure has been sent upon a special mission to California, and that he will not be able to reach here in time for the proposed lecture the latter part of this month. His department advises that they will be glad to have Mr. McClure stop here on his return and they will later advise the committee concerning the date.

The Farmers' Institute of Huntington county has proposed that the Fort Wayne meeting not be held until January so that Mr. McClure may be able to speak in Huntington on the day following his talk here. It is very likely that this arrangement will be made.

LEFT HORSE TO DIE.

Frank James Convicted of Cruelty to Animals and Fined.

Frank James, who came here from Lima a short time ago to engage in junking, was fined $5 and costs in the city court today on the charge of cruelty to animals. His old horse fell down on Lafayette street Saturday night and was unable to rise. He left the animal suffering there until 2 o'clock in the morning. He stated in his defense that he had instructed somebody to kill it.

CITY BREVITIES.

Mrs. Elizabeth Edarl, aged thirty-four, who lives in the rolling mill district, was found to be suffering from a well defined case of smallpox and on Saturday was removed to the isolation hospital.

Harry A. Keplinger, second vice president of the First National bank, had as his guest yesterday his brother, F. E. D. Keplinger, secretary and treasurer of the Pioneer Pole and Shaft company, of Piqua, O.

Tony George, the sheriff-elect of Marion, Ind., spent Saturday afternoon in this city visiting with friends, among whom are numbered many of the Fort Wayne police. George was formerly chief of police at Marion and is well known.

Fred W. James, a junk dealer of the city, left his horse, which had fallen at the corner of Washington and Harmer streets Sunday, without any attention and went to his home. He was later arrested on the charge of cruelty to animals and the horse was shot.

As she was descending the steps of the Church of the Precious Blood yesterday morning, Mrs. Caroline E. Houser, widow of the late Capt. John Houser, slipped and sustained a fracture of her right arm. Owing to the advanced age of the unfortunate woman, the injury is considered much more serious. She was removed to her home at 1132 Wells street and given medical attention.

Do the right thing if you have Nasal Catarrh. Get Ely's Cream Balm at once. Don't touch the catarrh powders and snuffs, for they contain cocaine. Ely's Cream Balm releases the secretions that inflame the nasal passages and the throat, whereas medicines made with mercury merely dry up the secretions and leave you no better than you were. In a word, Ely's Cream Balm is a real remedy, not a delusion. All druggists, 50 cents, or mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren Street, New York.

Are Microbes in Your Scalp?

Many Explanations of Baldness Have Been Advanced—The Most Correct is That of Microbes.

The term "microbes" refers to a parasitic plant or fungi also called bacteria. A microbe is so small that it can only be detected by the aid of a microscope. Some microbes are harmless, while others produce various diseases, and derive their titles through the form of their growth or because of the disease they create, which diseases are infectious or contagious.

Prof. Unna, of Hamburg, Germany, and Dr. Sabourand, the leading dermatologist of France, discovered that a microbe caused baldness, and their theory has time and again been amply verified through research experiments carried on through the observation of eminent scientists. This microbe lodges in the Sebum, which is the natural hair oil, and if permitted to flourish, it destroys the hair follicles, and in time the pores entirely close and the scalp gradually takes on a shiny appearance. When this happens there is no hope of the hair growth being revived.

Dandruff is a contagious disease which a microbe causes, and later produces itching scalp, falling hair and baldness. Dandruff is caused by the microbe diseasing the sebaceous matter, which dries up and scales off. Sometimes the cuticle surrounding the hair allows the natural oil of the hair to force its way between the flakes of scarf skin direct to the hair, and the microbe being between the flakes force them apart and they scale off as dandruff.

We have a remedy which positively will remove dandruff, exterminate the microbe, promote good circulation in the scalp, tighten and revitalize the hair roots, grow hair and cure baldness. We back up this statement on our own personal guarantee that this remedy, which is called Rexall "93" Hair Tonic, will be supplied free of all cost to the user if it fails to do as we promise. It will also restore gray and faded hair to its original rich, glossy color, if loss of color has been caused by disease, yet it is in no sense a dye. Rexall "93" Hair Tonic accomplishes these results by making every hair root, follicle and pigment gland strong and active, and by stimulating a natural flow of coloring pigment into the hair cells.

Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is entirely free from grease or sediment, is exceedingly pleasant to use, and will not gum the hair or soil the clothing or pillows.

We want everyone troubled with hair or scalp ailments, even though they are bald in spots, to try Rexall "93" Hair Tonic on our guarantee. We exact no obligations or promises, and simply ask you to give it a thorough trial, and if not satisfied, tell us, and we will refund the money paid us. Two sizes, 50c and $1.00. Meyer Bros. Co.
